“Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice.” – Philippians 4.4

Dear friends, as the leaves begin to turn and the air grows crisp, we have been reflecting on Paul’s letter to the Philippians throughout the month of October. Throughout that sermon series we learned that this letter is often called the “letter of joy,” and yet, it was written from a prison cell. Think about that for a second... written from a prison cell. How could

Paul speak so joyfully when life was so hard?

His words remind us that joy and happiness aren’t the same thing. Happiness depends on what’s happening around us; joy is rooted in what’s happening within us. For Paul, joy wasn’t about circumstances—it was about Christ’s presence. Whether he was preaching to a crowd or sitting in chains, he found peace in knowing that God was still at work.

This October, as our schedules fill up and the world feels unsettled, Paul’s words invite us to slow down and ask: Where am I finding my joy?

Joy grows when we practice gratitude, when we pray instead of worry (Philippians 4.6), and when we choose to see God’s goodness even in small moments—a child’s laughter, a quiet morning, a shared meal, a simple act of kindness.

So, friends, let’s be people who shine with joy. Not because life is easy, but because the Spirit is always near. Let’s carry that Philippians spirit with us into this new season: steady, thankful, and full of grace.

With joy in Christ, PJ

Advent Begins November 30, 2025

It’s hard to believe, but Advent is almost here! On Sunday, November 30, we begin a brand-new church year — a sacred season of waiting, watching, and preparing our hearts for the coming of Christ. Advent isn’t just about counting down the days until Christmas. It’s about making space for hope to grow again in us and in our world. In the quiet light of the candles, we remember that

God’s promise still holds true: “The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.”

Each week of Advent invites us deeper into the story —

- Hope for what is to come,
- Peace in the midst of our worries,
- Love that draws near in the form of a Savior, and
- Joy that springs up unexpectedly

This year, our worship will help us slow down and rediscover what we most long for — not just a holiday celebration, but the holy presence of Christ born among us and within us.

So mark your calendars for Sunday, November 30, and join us as we light the first candle of Advent. Bring your prayers, your hopes, and even your weariness. Together, we’ll wait in faith and celebrate the promise that God is still doing a new thing.

Jeremy Moore and his children Bentley and Gracie Moore were baptized at Zion on Sunday, October 26, 2025.

Hanging of the Greens

Sunday, November 30th • Following Worship (around 11:00 a.m.)

The season of Advent is almost here, and that means it's time for one of our favorite Zion Lippe traditions—the Hanging of the Greens! On Sunday, November 30, following our morning worship service, everyone is invited to stay and help transform our sanctuary into a beautiful and welcoming space for Advent and Christmas.

This special time of decorating is more than just hanging wreaths and garlands—it's an act of preparing our hearts and our church for the coming of Christ. Each part of the decorating carries meaning: the evergreen reminds us of God's eternal life and faithfulness; the lights point to Christ, the Light of the World; and the nativity draws us to the heart of the story—God's love made visible in Jesus.

We'll begin decorating around 11:00 a.m. There will be plenty of ways to help—hanging ornaments, setting up the tree, arranging greenery, or preparing the Advent candles. We'll share some light refreshments and Christmas music as we work together. It's always a joyful, memory-filled morning for all ages! Additionally, there will also be a light lunch that will be provided for all our wonderful volunteers.

Let's join in this time of fellowship and preparation as we make our sanctuary shine with hope, peace, love, and joy for the season ahead. — Pastor Jeff
